

IFA 2019
ASIA PACIFIC
MELBOURNE, AUSTRALIA

5th Regional Conference

17th – 19th June 2019

Melbourne Convention & Exhibition Centre

Taxation of the Digital Global Economy

Speakers

Speaker name	Organisation	Country	Bio
Amber Agustin	Clayton Utz	Australia	Amber Agustin is a Partner at Clayton Utz. Amber specialises in revenue litigation and disputes and has particular expertise in the areas of regulator powers, tax administration and legal professional privilege. She has conducted litigation in the Federal Court, the Administrative Appeals Tribunal, the State Supreme Courts and various state administrative appeal tribunals. Amber is a Fellow of The Tax Institute and holds a Master of Laws by coursework and research.
Chris Atkinson	Deloitte Legal	Australia	Chris Atkinson is the managing associate at Deloitte Legal. Chris specialises in tax controversy where he has successfully acted for a range of high profile clients in respect of ATO audit activity and formal taxation disputes. Chris also has significant experience advising clients on the taxation implications of a range of transactions including large infrastructure projects, high profile acquisitions, restructures and financing.
Gordon Beckstead	Amazon	Australia	Gordon Beckstead is a Director of US and International Tax at Amazon.com. He currently leads the International Tax group supporting the Amazon businesses in the APAC, the Americas and Middle East Regions with teams located in ten countries focused on US and International Tax Planning, Indirect Tax Planning and Compliance and Tax Policy.
Sarah Blakelock	Slaughter & May	United Kingdom	Sarah is a Consultant and member of Slaughter and May's Tax Dispute group and its broader Dispute Resolution practise where she assists clients to prevent, manage and resolve regulatory disputes. Formerly a Partner of KPMG Tax and Legal in Australia, Sarah is admitted as a solicitor of the Supreme Courts of New South Wales and Queensland and is presently reading for a Masters of Science (Taxation) with the University of Oxford, St Hugh's College.
Michael Bona	PricewaterhouseCoopers	Australia	Partner PwC Australia and Global Tax (International Tax and Transfer Pricing) Leader.
David Bradbury	Revenue Analysis & Tax Policy, OECD	France/Australia	David Bradbury is Head of Tax Policy and Statistics at the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), where he leads a team of economists, lawyers and statisticians who are focused on delivering high quality economic analysis and tax policy advice, and providing internationally comparable tax data and statistical analysis. In 2018, David was ranked No.1 in the International Tax Review's Global Tax 50 list of the most influential people in global tax policy. Prior to joining the OECD, David was a lawyer, a Member of the House of Representatives in the Australian Parliament, and a Minister in the Australian Government.
Simone Bridges	Baker McKenzie	Australia	Simone Bridges is a Partner in Baker McKenzie (Sydney). Her practice is predominantly in indirect taxes, cross border tax issues and tax controversy. Simone has a particular interest in tax issues affecting the digitalised economy. She has been listed as a Women Leader in Tax by the International Tax Review and has also been ranked by the Legal 500 as a New Generation Lawyer.

Brendan Brown	Russell McVeagh	New Zealand	Brendan is a partner and head of the tax practice in Russell McVeagh, New Zealand. He is a member of the committee of the New Zealand branch of IFA, a member of the Practitioner Council of the NYU International Tax Program and has lectured on tax and other commercial law topics at the Victoria University of Wellington and the University of Otago.
Stuart Brown	Exxon Mobil	Australia	Stuart is the Tax Manager for ExxonMobil Australia, with responsibility for ExxonMobil's tax affairs in Australia, PNG, New Zealand and the Pacific Islands. Stuart is also ExxonMobil's Asia Pacific Regional Tax Manager, with an oversight role over all of the company's Asia Pacific tax functions.
Chloe Burnett	NSW Bar	Australia	Chloe practices in commercial and public law, with a specialisation in tax law. She appeared in the Chevron transfer pricing case, the News Australia Holdings and Citigroup Part IVA cases, the Consolidated Media Holdings and Cable & Wireless buy-back cases, and other significant disputes. Chloe has expertise in international tax and teaches the Statutory Interpretation and Tax Litigation courses in the LLM program at The Sydney Law School.
Sandra Buth	Deloitte	Australia	Sandra Buth has over 16 years of commercial consulting experience in Australia and the US and has practised both as a lawyer and tax accountant. Sandra has particular expertise in respect of global equity plans. She has designed and implemented executive and employee equity plans offered throughout the world by multinational companies head-quartered principally in the US, the UK, Australia, Canada and Japan.
Hyejung Byun	University of Seoul	Korea, Rep.	Hyejung Byun is Professor at the University of Seoul. She serves as a member of various governmental committees, including the Review Committee on National Tax Rulings of the Ministry of Strategy and Finance, the Review Committee on Local Tax Rulings of the Ministry of the Interior and Safety, and the National Tax Administration Reform Committee of the National Tax Service. She has also served as a non-permanent member of the Tax Tribunal and a member on the National Tax Appeal of the National Tax Service.
Claudio Cimetta	Deloitte	Australia	Claudio is an international tax partner with Deloitte in Melbourne. He advises multinational corporations and investment funds on Australian inbound investment and outbound investments across Asia, Europe and North America. Claudio's expertise includes financing and holding structures, business restructuring, cross-border IP planning and Mergers & acquisitions due diligence and structuring.
Peter Collins	PricewaterhouseCoopers	Australia	Peter is a specialist in corporate international tax, assisting foreign investors structuring their Australian investments and Australian corporates expanding offshore. Peter has over 25 years experience in the provision of tax advice in relation to M&A as well as cross-border tax issues. Peter is currently driving PwC Australia's work around the OECD's BEPS project.

Luis Coronado	EY	Singapore	Luis is a Partner in an EY member firm based in Singapore and is also the EY Asia-Pacific Transfer Pricing Leader. Luis has more than 20 years of advisory experience in international tax and transfer pricing issues. He has worked in Asia since 2005, including in Shanghai and Singapore, where he is currently based. He is a member of the International Fiscal Association and has been voted numerous times into Euromoney's Guide to the World's Leading Transfer Pricing Advisers and Best of the Best. He is also a member of Bloomberg BNA Transfer Pricing Advisory Board.
Kuntal Dave	Nanubhai Desai	India	Mr Kuntal Dave is the Proprietor of Nanubhai Desai & Co, Chartered Accountants. He has over 25 years of experience in Corporate Finance, Taxation, Attestation, Foreign Exchange and Valuation, Cross Border Transactions, Commercial Laws, Regulatory Compliances and Government approvals. He regularly contributes articles, papers, case studies, etc. at various professional forums. He is a member of Executive Committee of IFA.
Fiona Dillon	ATO	Australia	Fiona is a Deputy Chief Tax Counsel at the ATO, focuses on the strategic direction of the ATO and its Law Design and Practice Group. She is a Senior Executive with over 20 years of tax experience in both public and private sectors.
Grant Duncan	Fonterra	New Zealand	Grant Duncan is Group (GM) Tax, Customs and Insurance at Fonterra Co-operative Group Limited and responsible for global tax, customs & Insurance portfolio management. He joined Fonterra from the New Zealand Dairy Board in 2001.
Craig Elliffe	Auckland University	New Zealand	Craig is a Professor specialising in taxation in the Law Faculty. Craig was appointed to a chair after 14 years as a tax partner at KPMG and 9 years as a tax partner at Chapman Tripp. Craig's research areas are in the field of international tax, corporate tax and tax avoidance. He is the Director of the MTaxS programme (the leading postgraduate tax course in New Zealand). He was a member of the Government's Tax Working Group (2018/19).
Hayato Furukawa	National Tax Agency, Japan	Japan	Since he joined the Japanese National Tax Agency in 1986, Mr Furukawa has experience in a wide range of work in the area of international taxation. He also has academic experience as a professor at WASEDA University.
Josie Guastalegname	Seek Corporation	Australia	With over 20 years of experience in Australian and international tax, Josie is the Group Head of Tax for SEEK Ltd. She is responsible for SEEK's global tax function across 4 continents. This includes SEEK's international and M&A tax advisory work and the day to day management of SEEK's Australian and NZ tax advisory compliance work. Prior to joining SEEK Ltd, Josie was at PwC where she advised technology companies ranging from start-ups to those engaged in global expansion. Josie is currently a member of the ATO's Large Business Stewardship Group as a corporate representative.
Hansol Lee	National Tax Service, Korea	Korea Rep.	Hansol Lee, deputy director of international taxation bureau of Korean NTS, is working to enhance cooperation between tax administrations through high-level meeting and study visit. After graduating at Seoul National Univ. in 2014, he has served in various areas like taxpayer rights, tax audit and international taxation.

Kyung Geun Lee	Yulchon LLC	Korea Rep.	Mr Kyung Geun Lee is a Senior Tax attorney at Yulchon. His practise areas are international tax and transfer pricing.
Gitte Heij	Tax Futures	Australia	Dr Gitte Heij is an international tax lawyer and passionate futurist. Her research and advisory work focuses on the future of tax, and she provides tax policy advice to governments and organisations around the world, particularly in the Asian region. She is proud member of the OECD government foresight group and a senior associate with Melbourne University Law School's Asian Law Centre.
Dan Hodgson	KPMG	Australia	Daniel is a Partner in KPMG Australia's Global Mobility Services team in Tax practice. He has experience in Australia and the UK advising multinational companies on all aspects of employee remuneration, including management incentive arrangements, employee mobility and tax structuring.
Willem Hoogland	HKWJ-Tax Law	Hong Kong	Willem Jan Hoogland, has more than 21 years practical experience in (inter)national tax planning and trust related works. He currently provides (inter)national tax advice & beneficial tax structures to private & corporate clients, including property related transactions. Willem Jan Hoogland is an executive member of the International Fiscal Association branch in Hong Kong.
Chia-Tern Huey Min	Inland Revenue, Singapore	Singapore	Mrs Huey Min Chia-Tern is the Deputy Commissioner of the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore, responsible for International Tax and Relations, Investigation and Forensics, as well as Indirect Taxes. In the international tax arena, Huey Min is Singapore's representative to the Steering Group of the Inclusive Framework and the Chair of the Peer Review Group of the Global Forum on Transparency and Exchange of Information. Huey Min is also currently serving as a councillor in the Singapore Division of CPA Australia.
John Hutagaol	Director-General of Taxes, Indonesia	Indonesia	John Hutagaol is Director of International Taxation in the Indonesian Directorate General of Taxes. Previously, he was Director of Tax Regulations II and Head of the Foreign Direct Investment One Tax Office. He has experience in various taxation areas, including delegation duties in many tax treaty negotiations. He was a conceptor of taxpayers mapping, profiling and benchmarking in Indonesia, and had an important role in the drafting of the current Indonesian Income Tax Law.

Tsuyoshi Ito	Jurists Lawyers	Japan	Tsuyoshi Ito is a LPC Partner of Nishimura & Asahi, and a head of Nishimura & Asahi Nagoya Office. He is a member of the finance practice group and the tax group of the firm. Mr Ito has been practicing law for 19 years in a wide variety of practice areas. Mr. Ito has, significant experience in financing transactions, especially banking transactions and asset management/investment fund transactions. He provides advice on asset management business regulations and compliance matters relevant to the Japanese market. In addition, Mr. Ito has significant experience in tax counseling and tax controversies, and has represented major corporations in many tax disputes and tax lawsuits.
Sanjay Iyer	Iyer Associates	Singapore	Mr Sanjay Iyer is the managing Director for IQ-EQ in the Hong Kong, he leads the teams to ensure delivery of the very best private wealth, corporate and fund solutions. Prior to joining IQ-EQ (formerly SGG Group) as Managing Director (Tax Asia) in 2018, he joined the family business (Iyer Practice) in 2010.
David Johnston	DLAPiper	New Zealand	David Johnston is an experienced tax lawyer, with a particular focus on mergers and acquisitions, New Zealand's treatment of inbound and outbound investment and tax disputes with the Inland Revenue. David also has considerable experience of advising on the tax treatment of funds and employee/management share plans.
Chris Jordan	Commissioner of Taxation, Australia	Australia	Chris Jordan AO was appointed as the 12th Commissioner of Taxation on 1 January 2013 and his term runs until 29 February 2024. He was the Chair of the Board of Taxation from June 2011 to December 2012 and a member of the Board since its inception in 2000. Chris started his accounting career with the firm Arthur Andersen in 1979, spent a few years as a senior lecturer in taxation at Sydney's University of Technology, and then working at KPMG for over 25 years.
Thenesh Kannaa	TraTax	Malaysia	Thenesh Kannaa is a partner at TraTax Malaysia, a firm of independent tax advisors rated as Top 10 in Malaysia for Transactional Tax. Thenesh is the author of several published books including the Wolters Kluwer's Master GST Guide (Malaysia). He is member of both Direct Tax and Indirect Tax Technical Committees of the Chartered Tax Institute of Malaysia (CTIM) that actively provide input and feedback to the tax authorities. Through TraTax, Thenesh advises various listed companies, multinational corporations and Government-linked companies.
Mike Kobetsky	Melbourne University	Australia	Dr Michael Kobetsky is an Associate Professor at Melbourne Law School. He is an Adjunct Professor at the Australian National University College of Law. Dr Kobetsky researches in transfer pricing, tax treaties, international anti-avoidance measures and domestic taxation.

Mark Konza	Australian Taxation Office	Australia	Mark is the Deputy Commissioner responsible for international taxation in the ATO and the Tax Avoidance Taskforce. He leads the development of ATO strategy in response to the base erosion and profit shifting, offshore tax evasion and foreign investment risks. He represents Australia at various OECD forums and has operational leadership of the Joint International Taskforce for Sharing Intelligence and Collaboration (JITSIC). Mark received the Public Service Medal in 2018 for his outstanding service to tax administration in particular, his contribution to International taxation.
Tom Kwon	Lee & Co Lawyers	Korea, Rep.	Mr Tom Kwon is a Tax Partner at Lee & Ko, Republic of South Korea. His areas of expertise are inbound and outbound investment in Korea, cross border M&A and tax structuring.
Kate Law	KPMG	Australia	Kate Law is a Partner in KPMG Australia's Indirect Tax Practice, with over 18 years' experience in advising inbound and domestic clients across all sectors. Kate is part of KPMG's Global Indirect Taxes Digital Economy working group and is passionate about participating in consultation regarding taxing digital supplies and assisting multinational clients navigate Australia's inbound intangible and low value goods measures.
Na Li	East China University of Political Science & Law	China PRC	Dr. Na Li is a lecturer at East China University of Political Science and Law (Shanghai). She is a Chinese lawyer and a US (New York State) lawyer practicing in cross-border investment and international taxation. She obtained an LLB from Fudan University (Shanghai) in 2001, an LLM in taxation from Boston University in 2009 and a PhD from Vienna University of Economics and Business (WU) in 2015.
David Linke	KPMG	Australia	David Linke is the National Managing Partner, Deals, Tax & Legal for KPMG Australia. As part of this role, David sits on KPMG's National Executive Committee, ASPAC Tax Board and is part of the KPMG International Tax Steering Group. Former National Corporate Tax Leader and Head of the M&A Tax team, David has over 20 years' experience in advising financial sponsors and Australian listed companies on transactions as well as international and M&A tax.
Wellington Liu	Tsar & Tsai Law Firm	Chinese Taipei	Wellington Liu is a partner of Tsar & Tsai Law Firm. His practice is focused on mergers and acquisitions, inbound and outbound investments, and tax. He has advised many multinational clients on significant transactional matters across a number of practice areas and industry sectors. Mr. Liu is a dual-licensed attorney and a dual-licensed CPA in both Taiwan and Texas, USA. He is a frequent speaker to bar associations and professional organizations on issues relating to Taiwanese corporate and tax laws, including the American Bar Association, International Bar Association, the Inter-Pacific Bar Association and the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners.
Yuri Matsubara	Meiji University	Japan	Yuri Matsubara is a professor of tax law at the School of Commerce at Meiji University, Tokyo, Japan. After graduating from Tokyo University (LLB) and the Graduate School of Law and Politics at the same University (LLM in Public Law), she studied at Leiden University (LLM in International Taxation) in the Netherlands with Prof. Kees van Raad (2000-2001). Subsequently, she undertook the PhD study at the University of Munich in Germany (2001-2005) and obtained her PhD supervised by Prof. Dr Moris Lehner there (2006). Meanwhile, she spent four months as a guest researcher at the Vienna University of Business Administration in Austria hosted by Prof. Dr DDr h.c. Michael Lang (2005). Since 2007, she has held a full-time chair of tax law at Meiji University.

Jock McCormack	DLAPiper	Australia	Head of Tax - DLA Piper Australia Chairman of Tax Committee - Infrastructure Partnerships Australia Treasurer & Executive Committee Member - IFA Australia Branch
Jane Michie	BHP	Australia	Jane Michie is the global head of the Tax function at BHP Billiton. She has been with the Company since March 2015. She has over 23 years of experience working in tax, the last 18 years of which have been in Australia.
Andrew Mills	Australian Taxation Office	Australia	Mr Andrew Mills was appointed Second Commissioner on 12 December 2013. Andrew has overall responsibility for the ATO's law practice, including law interpretation, dispute resolution and the ATO's role in policy and law design. He also chairs the ATO's Audit and Risk Committee. Andrew has more than 30 years of experience in taxation, including periods in the ATO, commerce and the tax profession.
Will Morris	PricewaterhouseCoopers	United States	Will Morris is PwC's Deputy Global Tax Policy Leader. In this role, he advises companies how best to navigate today's ever-evolving international business landscape. Prior to joining PwC, Will spent 17 years directing GE's Global Tax Policy Program and also worked at the IRS and U.S. Treasury. Will was appointed Chair of the AmCham EU Tax Committee in Brussels and Chair of the BIAC Tax Committee where he has been closely involved in all aspects of the BEPS project, including follow-up and implementation, participating in public OECD consultations, coordinating and filing comments on behalf of business, and meeting with many formal and informal OECD groupings as well as national governments.
Maryanne Mrakovcic	Australian Treasury	Australia	Maryanne Mrakovcic commenced as Deputy Secretary, Revenue Group in May 2016. In this position, Maryanne provides advice to the government on the revenue and taxation policy matters. Prior to her current role, Maryanne was Associate Secretary of the Fiscal and Economic Group at the NSW Treasury. Maryanne held this position from February 2013 to May 2016. Prior to joining NSW Treasury, Maryanne's career spanned 30 years with the Commonwealth Treasury including five years at IMF.
Michelle de Niese	Corporate Tax Association	Australia	Michelle has been the Executive Director of the Corporate Tax Association since January 2015. Prior to taking on the role as Executive Director she was the Assistant Director of the Corporate Tax Association for over nine years. Michelle has extensive experience as an external stakeholder in the development of Australia's tax policy and law, as well as aspects of tax administration.
NS Nigam	Bangalore Law School	India	Prof. Nigam Nuggehalli is a Visiting Professor at the National Law School of India University, Bangalore. Previously, he was an Associate Professor at Azim Premji University, Bangalore. He holds a DPhil in Law from Oxford University and an LLM (Taxation) from New York University School of Law.
Michael Olesnick	Baker and McKenzie	Hong Kong	Michael is a Senior Consultant with Baker & McKenzie in Hong Kong. He was formerly the head of that firm's Hong Kong and Asia tax groups. His practice focuses on general corporate tax advice, tax disputes and litigation and stamp duty matters. Michael has served as Chairman of the Joint Liaison Committee on Taxation from 1986 to now. In addition, he has been a full-time lecturer in the Law Faculty of Hong Kong University, and remains a visiting lecturer in tax law there. Michael has more than 30 years of tax experience.

Vincent Ooi	Singapore Management Uni	Singapore	Vincent is a Lecturer of Law at the Singapore Management University School of Law and Incoming Doctoral Student in Tax Law at Downing College, Cambridge. His recent publications include Halsbury's Laws of Singapore (Revenue and Taxation) and works in the Law Quarterly Review and Tax Notes International. Earlier this year, Vincent was awarded the Best Tax Research Paper Prize at the 31st Australasian Tax Teachers' Association Conference.
Carmel Peters	Inland Revenue Department, New Zealand	New Zealand	Carmel is a policy manager for Policy and Strategy, Inland Revenue, in New Zealand. She manages the delivery of a range of domestic reforms which include New Zealand's response to BEPS and the digital economy. Carmel negotiates New Zealand's double tax agreements and is the New Zealand delegate to Working Party 1 (Tax Treaties) at the OECD. She co-chairs that Working Party with Aart Roelofsen from the Netherlands. Carmel was reappointed to the United Nations Committee of Experts on International Co-operation in Tax Matters in August 2017 which she co-chairs with Eric Mensah from Ghana. She is also the Convenor of the UN Subcommittee on update to the United Nations Model Taxation Convention.
Casey Plunket	Inland Revenue Department, New Zealand	New Zealand	Casey has been employed since 2015 by the New Zealand Inland Revenue in its Policy and Strategy team. His recent projects include reforming the taxation of employee share schemes and implementing the BEPS anti-hybrid rules. For 25 years before that he was a tax lawyer in private practice in Auckland, with clients in the funds management and private equity industry, amongst others. Casey is a past convenor of the New Zealand Law Society Tax committee, and current chair of the NZ branch of IFA. He has lectured in tax at the University of Auckland and University of Sydney law schools and is a frequent presenter at New Zealand tax conferences.
Aurobindo Ponniah	PricewaterhouseCoopers	Malaysia	Tax Executive Director, PwC Malaysia
Anand Raj	Shearn Delamore & Co Lawyers	Malaysia	Anand is the Co-Head of the firm's Competition and Antitrust Practice Group. Anand has vast experience in corporate and investment work and has extensive experience in all aspects of tax and revenue law advisory, structuring, planning, litigation, transfer pricing, audit and investigation work. In 2017, Anand was named Asia Tax Litigation and Disputes Practice Leader of the Year by the International Tax Review. He has also been recognized as an "Expert" in the Who's Who of Corporate Tax Lawyers in 2016, 2017 and 2018.
Gareth Redenbach	Victorian Bar	Australia	Gareth Redenbach is an international tax barrister based in Australia. He has advocated in the Australian High Court, the Full Federal Court and all Victorian Courts and Tribunals dealing with taxation. He has detailed specialist knowledge of the banking, funds management and digital industries. Gareth is a Senior Fellow of the University of Melbourne where he teaches in the LLM program. In 2016, Gareth was one of four tax lawyers under 40 globally invited to present on tax issues in the digital economy at the 70th Annual IFA Congress in Madrid and is one of Australia's joint reporters to IFA's 74th Annual Congress in 2020 on issues raised by the Multilateral Instrument.

Rebecca Rose	Bell Gully	New Zealand	Rebecca is a general litigator with significant advocacy experience as lead and co-counsel in all of New Zealand's higher courts, as well as in major commercial arbitrations. In recent years, Rebecca has led some of New Zealand's leading and most complex tax and trust cases, including the Chatfield exchange of information litigation which has involved 10 court decisions to date and been reported and commented on internationally. She has also led high-profile litigation for the Cook Islands Government. Rebecca is recommended by the Legal500 and won Young Private Practice Lawyer of the Year at the New Zealand Law Awards 2018.
Rachel Saw	IBFD	Malaysia	Rachel Saw is the Head of IBFD's Asia & Pacific Office located in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. Rachel has extensive experience in dealing with cross-border tax issues from both a tax administration and tax policy perspective. Her work and expertise is currently focused on regions, with particular attention to the challenges faced by developing countries in today's tax environment.
Gaye Searancke	Inland Revenue Department, New Zealand	New Zealand	Gaye Searancke is the Deputy Commissioner of the Inland Revenue, New Zealand
Paul Sokolowski	Arnold Bloch Leibler	Australia	Paul Sokolowski is a partner and the national taxation practice leader at Arnold Bloch Leibler. Paul advises a range of clients, including (ultra) high-net-worth individuals, large private groups, listed entities and not-for-profits, on Federal tax issues in reviews, audits and disputes, and in domestic and international transactions. Paul is the Secretary, and is a member of the Executive Committee, of the Australian Branch of IFA.
Miranda Stewart	University of Melbourne	Australia	Miranda Stewart is Professor of Law at the University of Melbourne Law School where she is Director of the Tax Group and is a Fellow at the Tax and Transfer Policy Institute at the Crawford School of Public Policy, The Australian National University. Miranda has more than 25 years research, practical and leadership experience in tax law and policy in academia, government and the private sector. Miranda engages in research, policy advice and teaching across a wide range of topics including taxation of large and small business entities, not-for-profits and individuals; international taxation and the role of tax in development; reform processes and budget institutions; and gender equality in tax and transfer systems. Miranda is the president of International Fiscal Association Asia Pacific Committee.
Stephen Southon	NAB	Australia	Steve Southon has been Chief Tax Officer of National Australia Bank since March 2013. Steve holds Bachelor degrees in Finance and Law and Masters degrees in Taxation and Law.
Ichwan Sukardi	RSM	Indonesia	Ichwan is a Managing Partner - Tax within RSM Indonesia with more than 20 years experiences. He has been providing tax advisory to a wide range of multi-national and domestic companies mostly in energy sectors. Ichwan is currently the chairman of International Fiscal Association – Indonesia.

Niv Tadmor	Jones Day	Australia	Dr. Niv Tadmor is a seasoned tax dispute resolution lawyer who has advised many clients on how to deal with complicated tax environments. He counsels domestic and international clients on a broad range of tax issues, particularly the resolution of tax disputes concerning international taxation, transfer pricing, integrity measures, M&A activities, private equity investments, and business restructures. Niv is a vice president and member of the Executive Committee of the International Fiscal Association.
en Abu Tariq bin Jamaluddin	Inland Revenue Department, Malaysia	Malaysia	Mr Abu Tariq is the head of the Legal Department, Inland Revenue Board of Malaysia. Mr Abu Tariq has over 24 years of experience in advisory, litigation and drafting work in all aspects of revenue law. He has represented the Board at all levels of the Malaysian courts in many landmark tax cases.
Alan Tsen	Stone and Chalk	Australia	Alan Tsen is the Melbourne GM of Stone & Chalk - an independent, not-for-profit fintech hub which fosters and accelerates the development of world-leading fintech start-ups. He is currently the chair of FinTech Australia where he has led numerous submissions to government departments on digital currency and blockchain tech - including the removal of 'double GST' from digital currency and amendments to KYC/AML laws designed to incorporate digital currency.
Paulson Tseng	Partner, Value Chain Transformation	Chinese Taipei	Paulson Tseng is PwC Tax partner focusing on international tax and value chain services. He is the Tax reporting and strategy leader in PwC Taiwan, driving tax technology transformation for MNC clients. He has over 10 years experience working in PwC Taiwan and PwC Netherlands. He has expertise in advising large (majorly Asian) multinational companies mainly involved in value chain transformation /international tax issues.
Richard Vann	University of Sydney	Australia	Richard J Vann is Challis Chair of Law at the University of Sydney. In 2006 he was William K Jacobs Jr Visiting Professor at Harvard Law School and he has taught regularly at New York University School of Law. He specialises in corporate, comparative and international taxation. He is a graduate of the University of Queensland, Australia and Oxford University, UK.
Ellie Verran	Chapman Tripp	New Zealand	Ellie Verran is a Solicitor in Chapman Tripp's Wellington-based tax team. Ellie joined Chapman Tripp as a law clerk in 2017, after completing a Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Commerce at Victoria University of Wellington. Although a fresh face in the tax world, Ellie has taken a particular interest in advising clients on corporate restructuring, trusts, cross-border taxation and IRD investigations/tax disputes.
Satoshi Watanabe	Hitotsubashi University	Japan	Satoshi Watanabe is professor at Graduate School of Economics and; School of International and Public Policy, Hitotsubashi University.

Ann Maree Wolff	Rio Tinto	Australia	Ann Maree Wolff has over 23 years' experience as a qualified tax professional with over 13 years' experience in senior tax roles within the mining industry. She is currently the Head of Tax for Rio Tinto responsible for all tax matters relevant to Rio Tinto in Australia and the broader region. She has been extensively involved in tax policy development in her roles on the Tax Committees for the Business Council of Australia and Minerals Council of Australia, the Executive Committee of the Corporate Taxpayers Association, as well as through consultation directly with the Australian Treasury.
Andrea Wood	Australian Taxation Office	Australia	Andrea Wood has over 15 years of experience working on international tax issues at the ATO and the Department of Treasury, including the Multinational Anti-Avoidance Law, the OECD Base Erosion and Profit Shifting Project, and tax treaty policy and negotiation. Andrea worked on the 2014 Bitcoin Taxation Determinations and has responsibility for cryptocurrency issues in her current role as Acting Assistant Commissioner, Tax Counsel Network.
Lien-Ying Wu	Taxation Administration, Taiwan	Chinese Taipei	Deputy Director-General Taxation Administration
Bill Ye	KWM	China PRC	Bill's areas of practice include legal and tax compliance, tax dispute resolution, transfer pricing and private wealth management. His professional experience of over 19 years in Chinese taxation including 14 years with Deloitte China where he has served a broad industry of clients, including TMT, manufacture, retail, finance, real estate, healthcare, entertainment.